

Eric Papp

Founder of Agape Leadership, LLC is an intellectual capital firm focusing on leadership for business performance. He has a successful history of delivering proven strategies for being productive and increasing performance in a complex world.

Since 2010 he has worked with thousands of managers and is evaluated as one of North America's top management trainers.

He is the author of Leadership By Choice, published by John Wiley and Sons, 3 Values of Being An Effective Person and The Sales Planner, and The Priority Planner.

Partial Client List:

- Million Dollar Round Table
- American Dental Association
- National Institutes of Health
- Homeland Security
- Nationwide Insurance

He received his B.A. from the University of Notre Dame. He lives in Tampa, FL, with his wife Briann, their children Elliana and Cole. In his spare time, Eric is active at his church and practices the kettlebell.