

About Eric Papp

Eric Papp is the founder of Agape Leadership, LLC, an intellectual capital firm focusing on leadership for business performance. He has a successful history of delivering proven strategies for being productive and increasing performance in a complex world.

Since 2010, he has worked with thousands of managers and is evaluated as one of North America's top management trainers. He is the author of Leadership By Choice, published by John Wiley and Sons, 3 Values of Being An Effective Person, The Sales Planner, The Priority Planner, and Manage Promises, Not People.

Partial Client List:

- Million Dollar Round Table
- American Dental Association
- National Institutes of Health
- Homeland Security
- Nationwide Insurance

He received his B.A. from the University of Notre Dame. He lives in Tampa, FL, with his wife, Briann, and their children, Elliana and Cole. Eric is active at his church, enjoys exercising, and performs stand-up comedy in his spare time.